

Wallara Land Management Services

Wallara Land Management Services is a purpose driven social enterprise, delivering professional horticultural services that meet & exceed commercial expectations. We provide reliable, innovative, timely & safe solutions while keeping customers informed about their assets & proudly create meaningful employment opportunities for people with disability through inclusive workforce practices & strong social procurement outcomes.

Key Services

Facilities & Grounds Maintenance

- Professional turf maintenance and management solutions.
- Comprehensive maintenance of commercial, government & community outdoor environments.
- Gardens maintenance & upkeep.
- Plant management services.
- Debris & litter removal.

Service Coverage

We operate across metropolitan Melbourne, delivering responsive, reliable & high-quality land management services to commercial, government & community clients.

Environmental & Regeneration

- Expert planting of indigenous & native species.
- Strategic landscape revegetation and long-term environmental regeneration initiatives.
- Weed control & management.
- Weed & jute matting for erosion control.

Our Commitment

Safety, Quality & Compliance

- Established occupational health and safety protocols and procedures.
- Environmentally responsible delivery.
- Industry-standard quality assurance.

Social Impact

Empowering employment

Wallara provides meaningful employment opportunities for approximately 230 people with disability across a diverse range of pathways, including logistics, land management, hospitality & open employment.

Driving Social Change:

We drive social change through partnerships & initiatives including:

- Wallara TV is our award-winning in-house media team.
- Sages Cottage Farm - 40 acres on the Mornington Peninsula. Wallara's aim is for Sages to be Australia's most inclusive farm.
- Iconic Collingwood Children's Farm.

Our customers

Wallara Land Management Services currently works with 20+ corporate customers including:

Contact us | w: wallara.com.au | p: (03) 9792 2985 | e: lms@wallara.com.au